In the event that Customer is a "covered entity" or "business associate" pursuant to the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ("HIPAA"), Customer will not input into or make available to Onapsis any "protected health information" without first notifying Onapsis in writing and entering into a business associate agreement with Onapsis.

3. Customer's use of the Cloud Services is subject to the Onapsis Privacy Policy and Cookie Policy, each available at <https://onapsis.com/>, which are incorporated by reference and as updated from time to time (the "Privacy and Cookie Policy"), and together with the DPA, the SLA, and the Onapsis Cloud Support Services Policy, the "Agreement Documents"). If at the time when the respective Order Form is concluded, Customer should be of the opinion that that the maximum liability amount set forth in this Section is not sufficiently high to cover Customer's typical contractual damage that might occur in case of a slight negligent breach of a material obligation by Onapsis, then Customer will enter into negotiations with Onapsis in order to agree to an adequate adjustment of the maximum liability amount for the respective Order Form.

5. Any liability other or beyond the liability provided in Sections IX.1. to 4. is excluded.
